To Those Responsible for Preparing the FR Y-7 (Annual Report of Foreign Banking Organizations):

The FR Y-7 is filed by foreign banking organizations ("reporters") and is due within one hundred twenty (120) calendar days of the reporter's fiscal year-end date. If the deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it is moved to the next business day.

2026 FR Y-7 Due Date
Fiscal Year-End Date	Due Date
October 31, 2026	March 1, 2027

Report Preparation

Structure Central was recently updated to allow for the ingestion of each report item (see the letter we sent on October 13 for more information). Utilize the FR Y-7 Report Instructions for what to enter into each item and the Structure Central User Guide for how to enter it. The instructions should be accessed yearly to ensure compliance with updates.

Organization Chart (Report item 2(a)1): Regardless of the submission method (see below), all FR Y-7 reporters are required to access Structure Central to compare the Federal Reserve's list of your entities that are both FR Y-7 and FR Y-10 reportable to your actual organizational structure as of the fiscal year-end date. Please contact us if you identify any discrepancies.

Submission Options

For your convenience, the FR Y-7 may be submitted via Structure Central. Since you must review your organization chart in Structure Central, we encourage you to take advantage of this secure, time-saving option.

Alternatively, you may send a hard copy FR Y-7 by completing the current report form and including the required additional attachments. If you choose this option, we recommend that you obtain tracking/proof of delivery. Send the complete report to:

Extension Requests

In the event you cannot submit your FR Y-7 within the 120-day deadline, advise us as soon as possible, but no less than 30 days before the deadline, via an extension request that must include the reason for the delay and the expected submission date. Submitting a request does not guarantee approval. Extensions of more than 30 days past the due date are not granted. See the last paragraph of page GEN-1 in the FR Y-7 Report Instructions for more information.

Additional FR Y-7 Information

- The FR Y-7 is considered a public document and should exclude personal information (e.g., home addresses, social security numbers, birth dates, etc.) that may compromise individuals' personal privacy.
- The FR Y-7 must be signed by an officer of the reporter who has the authority to make representations, present factual information, and legally bind the organization with respect to the information set forth in the report.
