Brian Jones

President and Chief Executive Officer
The First National Bank of Elmer

Brian Jones is President and Chief Executive Officer of The First National Bank of Elmer. Jones joined The First National Bank of Elmer in August 2015. In his position he provides strong and consistent leadership and direction for all bank wide initiatives, programs and activities. He ensures the achievements of all financial performance and operational goals within the organization while supporting the bank's mission, vision, values and culture. Jones believes that service to others is a key element of leadership and supports and maintains a high level of civic and community involvement. Prior to joining The First National Bank of Elmer he served as Senior Vice President and Chief Lending Officer for Newfield National Bank. In that role, he was responsible for the daily operations of the lending department and for the bank's credit policy. He also served as a member of the bank's Asset Liability Committee, Strategic Planning Committee and Senior Loan Committee.

Sharmain Matlock-Turner
CEO
Urban Affairs Coalition

Sharmain Matlock-Turner is the CEO of the Urban Affairs Coalition. She began her tenure in March 1999 with the special distinction of being the first woman to lead the Coalition. The Urban Affairs Coalition, formerly GPUAC, unites government, business, neighborhoods, and individual initiative to improve the quality of life in the region, build wealth in urban communities, and solve emerging issues. In partnership with a diverse Board of Directors, made up of business, nonprofit and community leaders, Ms. Matlock-Turner and her team of managers and nearly 450 employees create partnerships and build consensus to help families reduce poverty and reach the middle class. The organization's efforts are focused in four areas: improving life chances for youth and young adults; building wealth in low-income communities; forging strategic partnerships and strengthening the nonprofit sector through fiscal sponsorship. The organization has successfully managed more than $1B in public and private funds over its 50+ year history.
