Potential Class B Director — Attachment I

Brian Schaller
President
Wawa, Inc.
Wawa, Pennsylvania

Brian Schaller is president of Wawa, Inc., a chain of more than 1,200 convenience stores located in 14 states in the Mid-Atlantic, Southeast, and Midwest. The family- and associate-owned, privately held company has more than 50,000 associates serving almost 2 million customers every day. Schaller has been with Wawa since 2002 and leads the store operations, fuel, real estate, supply chain, finance, and marketing teams.

The company began in the early 1800s in New Jersey with an iron foundry and a cotton and textile mill and migrated to Pennsylvania with the opening of a dairy plant in 1902. As home delivery of dairy declined in the early 1960s, the first Wawa convenience store opened in Folsom, PA, in 1964.

Before joining Wawa, Schaller worked at Deloitte & Touche as a manager in the audit and assurance practice in Princeton, NJ, specializing in the audit of financial services companies.

Schaller serves on the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia's Economic and Community Advisory Council and on the boards of Vybe Urgent Care, Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, and other organizations.

Schaller has an M.B.A. from Villanova University and a B.S. in accounting from La Salle University. He has been a licensed certified public accountant in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania since 1999.
