Community Development Financing

IN RURAL PENNSYLVANIA

Community Development Financing in Rural Pennsylvania is designed for bankers, developers, and nonprofit and government representatives interested in community development in rural areas of the state. The events are planned by the Federal Reserve Banks of Philadelphia and Cleveland and Rural LISC (an affiliate of the Local Initiatives Support Corporation).

AGENDA HIGHLIGHTS

The program includes:

Analysis by lenders and borrowers of public-private financing partnerships;

Opportunities for bank-nonprofit partnerships using Pennsylvania's Neighborhood Assistance Program;

Explanation of CRA regulations pertaining to distressed or underserved rural areas and intermediate small banks; and

A networking lunch and discussion with speakers.

Agenda information may be found at
