

Potential Class A2

Jon Evans

Atlantic Community Bankers Bank
President and Chief Executive Officer
Camp Hill, PA

Experience Jon Evans is President and Chief Executive Officer of Atlantic Community Bankers Bank. He has 36 years of banking experience in the mid-Atlantic region, including small community to regional banking institutions. He held various operation and credit positions in banking before managing the Financial Institutions Group at Summit Bank, Princeton, NJ. Evans assumed the role of Chief Executive Officer at Atlantic Community Bankers Bank in 2001. Atlantic Community Bankers Bank offers credit and noncredit correspondent services such as cash management, investment, and loan participations to the community banking industry. In 2005, Evans founded and assumed the role of chairman of ACBB-BITS, the only privately owned telecommunications company designed solely for financial institutions in the United States.

Potential Class B3

Patricia A. Hasson
Clarifi
President and Executive Director
Philadelphia, PA

Experience Patricia A. Hasson has served as President and Executive Director of Clarifi since 1998. Reporting to the Board of Directors, Hasson oversees operation of the agency and its professional and administrative staff of 60-plus employees. During her 19-year tenure, the agency has tripled in size, expanding to meet the increased demand for financial counseling and education service in a major metropolitan area. Clarifi has earned a national reputation operating at a regional level with 20 offices in three states in and around Philadelphia. In addition, the agency has taken the lead on a national program with a mortgage insurer to assist homeowners experiencing difficulty with their mortgage. Hasson has become a recognized thought leader in the area of financial capability and financial inclusion and has channeled much of her energy and resources into initiating and implementing financial education programs that benefit low- to moderate-wealth households in the Delaware Valley. She has also taken a lead role in sharing her knowledge and expertise with the local business and the nonprofit community as well as with local, state, and federal government officials on financial issues impacting consumers, specifically related to housing and credit; she also mentors a new generation of consumer advocates. Prior to joining Clarifi, Hasson spent more than 12 years as a banking executive with a diverse consumer and commercial lending background, including expertise in small business, credit cards, education finance, merchant processing, and auto finance.
